Mr. Keinon became a diplomatic correspondent for the Jerusalem Post in 2000 and has covered immigration and absorption, religious parties, haredim, and the settlements. He has also been a features writer and weekly columnist at the paper. He is also responsible for covering Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu and Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs Avigdor Liberman. He often travels with Netanyahu on his frequent trips abroad.

Mr. Keinon offers an intimate perspective of the conflicts in the Middle East and appears frequently on a variety of radio and television programs in the US, Canada, and Europe as a guest commentator on the situation in Israel. He has also lectured widely both in Israel and the US on the subject.

Originally from Denver, Colorado, Mr. Keinon has a BA in political science from the University of Colorado, Boulder, and an MA in journalism from the University of Illinois, Champaign-Urbana. He has lived in Israel for 25 years. His first book, Lone Soldiers: Israel's Defenders from Around the World, will be published this fall and tells the story of young men and women from the Diaspora who volunteer to serve in the Israeli army.
