

Faculty Kudos-Weeks of May 25 and June 1, 2015

Jeannine Relly and Celeste González de Bustamante's research work titled "News Media, Violence, and Asymmetrical Information: A Study of Mexico-U.S. Border Journalists' Use of State and Federal Access to Information Laws in a Time of Conflict" was presented at the International Communication Association annual meeting in San Juan, Puerto Rico on May 22. The panel was titled, "The Consequences of Freedom of Information Legislation for Democratic Governance and Media Freedom."

Student Kudos

Graduate student Kendal Blust's research paper titled, "What's in a name? The renewal of development journalism in the 21st century," was accepted in the International Communication Division for presentation at the AEJMC conference in San Francisco.