Faculty Kudos- Weeks of June 8, 15 and 22, 2015

Linda Lumsden spoke on “The Life and Legacy of Inez Milholland” on June 16 in Westport, N.Y. The talk followed a tour of the Meadowmount School of Music, formerly the Milholland family’s estate, sponsored by Adirondack Architectural Heritage.

There were many contributors with ties to the UA School of Journalism who offered a hand during the Dow Jones News Fund Journalism Diversity Workshop for Arizona High School Students this year. The workshop ran from June 7-13. Included are mentors, instructors, speakers, and alumni, and their roles during the workshop: Elena Stauffer, director; Frank Sotomayor, diversity in journalism; Prof. Nancy Sharkey, Day 1 welcome; Prof. Susan Swanberg, mentor and media law instructor; Prof. Jeannine Relly, reporting/interviewing instructor; Prof. Joe Sharkey, words of wisdom; Amanda N. Martinez, lead mentor and dorm counselor; Anthony Avila, story development; Anna Augustowska, multimedia instructor; Cecil Schwalbe, photographing animals; Carmen Duarte, beat reporting; Paloma Boykin, going to college; Neto Portillo, Jr., column writing; Prof. Gawain Douglas, publication design; Andrea Kelly and Fernanda Echavarri, radio news; Stanley Throssell, keynote speaker; Prof. Don Carson, remarks at closing event.

(Send error delayed the distribution of this kudos. I apologize.)