

UA School of Journalism Academic Integrity Agreement

Please check the boxes below, sign the agreement and return it to your professor. It will be kept in your advising file in the UA School of Journalism. You will be asked to fill out this form in all your journalism classes. The copies serve as a permanent record that you understand the policies on academic and journalistic integrity.

I have read and understood all of the journalism school's Handbook on Academic Integrity, including the sections on definitions and examples of plagiarism and other misconduct and the section on progressive discipline for violations.
