

THE UNIVERSITY OF ARIZONA NATIVE AMERICAN JOURNALISTS ASSOCIATION

presents

NATIVE PERSPECTIVES

Sponsored by the Arizona State Museum and the University of Arizona

Native American Student Affairs

Featured photos are taken from the Native Perspectives exhibit.

L: "Badlands Child" by Sheila Rocha

R: "Sheepcamp" by Amanda Bahe

OPENING NIGHT:

Thursday, November 18th

6 pm

Arizona State Museum

Native Perspectives is a month-long photo exhibit that will showcase the many different sides of life in Native America and is a way to preview the stories that will appear in our next edition of our print publication also titled Native Perspectives.

Photographers will elaborate on the angles of their work and what their experiences have taught them.

After opening night, this exhibit will be open to the public throughout the month of November and into December.

Featured photographers: Amanda Bahe, Tegan Cleveland, Asha Greyeyes, Sheila Rocha, Donovan Quintero and Lorenzo Yazzie.