Journalism Internship

Tucson Foodie is a fun, food-focused online magazine covering all things food related in and around Tucson, Arizona. Below are some of the tasks and duties interns will be expected to perform.

1. One article per week. Some filler style articles, some longer form.
2. Pitch 6 - 10 stories per week.
3. Factcheck, proofread, format, and edit as necessary. Write as an authority on the subject.
4. Complete 1 listicle style roundup per month. Should include any combination of images sourced from the web, images you’ve taken, and in-house images.
5. Interview business owners and representatives as needed. For information and quotes which will be accurately stated in articles.
6. Setup a system for a flow of news to be streaming to you. Use social media lists, hashtags, and an inner hunger for stories.
7. Develop a keen eye for out of the ordinary stories. Almost anyone can write a story but to make it standout requires a combination of skills.
8. Represent Tucson Foodie as needed at events. Occasionally, offsite events will require booth representation.
9. Assist with any requested office needs.
10. Craft catchy headlines for stories. A story can only be worthy if people read it. The headline is what makes that happen.
11. Craft catchy social media posts for stories.
